The Edward Thomas Fellowship Newsletters

An Index of Interesting Items and Main Articles

Newsletter 41 August 1999 to Newsletter 60 August 2008

In April 1999, fellowship member John Barnes produced the first index to the Edward Thomas Fellowship Newsletters. The index covered the period 1980 to 1999 Newsletter numbers 1 to 40 inclusive.

John in his introduction stated that members of the Fellowship gain much pleasure from the contents and on occasions find the need to refer back to a particular item or article, but where to find them?

Retirement held the key for John, enabling him to collate all the material from the first forty editions. Seven years later I find myself in that same situation, retirement and all the pleasures that it brings. It seemed sensible to follow the same format that John used, not all items are listed and as with any index it must be somewhat subjective.

The headings are as the published articles wherever possible.

To paraphrase John's introduction in 1999, the first eighteen Newsletters were compiled by the founder and first Chairman of the Edward Thomas Fellowship, Anne Mallinson and Alan A. Martin who was the Hon. Secretary at that time. Richard Emeny became the editor of the Newsletter with edition nineteen and continues to fill the Newsletter with erudite scholarship to the current day. We owe much to both of our editors for the time and effort that they have put into making the Newsletter a publication that we look forward to receiving with great anticipation throughout the year.

I hope that this continued index will be as useful as the first index, thus enhancing the members reading pleasure.

Colin G. Thornton
Hon. Secretary
The Edward Thomas Fellowship
